Honoring Human Rights Leaders in Seattle

October 25, 2013

Dear Human Rights Supporter:

The December 10th celebration of Seattle Human Rights Day, including the 50th anniversary of the Seattle Human Rights Commission, provides an opportunity to honor a Seattle area organization or individual who has advanced human rights locally, nationally, or internationally.

Take a few minutes to think about our local human rights leaders. Is there someone you would like to see honored? Please submit the attached nomination form via mail, fax, or email by November 8th, 2013. Your participation is vital to the success of this award process.

The Seattle Human Rights Award will be presented at the Seattle Human Rights Day/Seattle Human Rights Commission 50th Anniversary celebration on Tuesday, December 10, 2013, 7:30 p.m. at Town Hall. This ceremony is a powerful way to acknowledge the work of outstanding people who inspire us all.

Past award recipients have included Magdaleno Rose-Avila, Joe Martin, Legal Voice, Northwest Immigrant Rights Project, Casa Latina, Pride Foundation, Somali Community Services of Seattle, YWCA Girls First, Trans Jail Policy Group, the Wing Luke Asian Museum and many others.

On behalf of the Human Rights Day/Seattle Human Rights Commission 50th Anniversary Planning Committee, thank you for your participation. If you have any questions, please call Ronald Ramp at 206-684-0390 or email ronald.ramp@seattle.gov.

Warm regards,
